Camp Capers

The reason we are here

1st stop, visitor center

Lodge and Meeting Room

We visit and visit...

...visit...

Just waiting to eat

Tuesday, we eat; would you believe steak, roasted potatoes and asparagus?

Wes explains the plan and... works on the projector.

Dr. Larry Williams begins the lessons based on the movie, The Giver. This is a story where after a horrible conflict, communities were established, where there was no violence or evil, but also, there was no emotion, or love, just peace?

Time to visit some more...

Wednesday morning with coffee,
waiting for breakfast...as more arrive.

Breakfast at last.

A moment of reflection from Tim, the one who introduced us to Camp Capers.

Setup again... again, how does this thing work?

Watching a clip from The Giver

Now I understand; it is clear. Don't you see?

Wednesday afternoon free time:
The amphitheater on the Guadalupe and two for a walk.

Fellow Voyagers meet

A really neat suspension foot bridge

That free time is tiring; now some rest and visiting.

More rest and visiting and handiwork.

Cool!

What a view.

This is how Chris Buckingham see a tree, cool. I wonder how God sees the tree.

This is how I caught the fish.

It is hard to believe that this little fish fed the whole crew with salmon for dinner. But it was not the first time. Praise God!

Waiting to eat that salmon

The classic group picture. What a special group. Thank you for being here.

The beautiful sunset Wednesday evening shot by Buckingham.
Was this a show given to us by God or the earth giving the show for God and us?

Getting ready for the last night session

Wednesday night round table discussion. Testimony and stories shared and new memories formed. God was with us.

Why do we have to leave something so warm and nice?

Was this large beautiful butterfly on my door number a sign from God that He was pleased with our gathering?

Our last breakfast. Our Father in heaven.....

One more cup of coffee and then complete the survey.

Did you like Camp Capers; I really did.

Preparing for the last session and the meaning of the drawing

Les has now mastered the video.

The last session is about to start.

One last comment.

One last story to tell.

And a few more stories over here.

How about we sing to close?

Phyllis leads the singing.

The final song.

Final comments by Les.

One last visit. Why must this end?

Larry and Linda, our very special guest. Thanks to Bill for introducing them to us.
